

When you drink, you fall asleep.

Considering the scent and the feel of the bed, I believe I am home.

Yes... I am at home.

I believe the old man brought me here.

I vaguely recall him cursing at me as he laid me down here...

I tend to have a long dream at a time like this.

And I know what dream it is going to be.

Because I met Whar...

Ji-Ah...

Hey, Yun Ji-Ah!

Hmm... who ...

We have a favor to ask ...

Uh... what is it?

Would you mind taking a picture of us?

Take a picture of you two? Me?

Yeah, a friend of mine told me that you used to belong to a photography club? I assume you know a thing or two about taking pictures.

I quit that club a long time ago ...

But okay. Have you chosen a place?

It's been one year and 2 months since I entered the middle school.

I think it's just me who is feeling that maintaining human relationships at this stage is bothersome and unnecessary.

They try to find common grounds when trying to make friends.
Like ...
They used to go to the same schools or classes.
Genders.
They try to befriend those who they have something in common with.

The thing is ... that's bothersome.

To be utterly honest, I am not interested.

The recess is almost over though...

Hey.

Hey!

What now...

I am trying to take a picture here and you are a sore sight. Mind moving?

T... That ...

Silvery skin underneath black leathery paint!

Beautiful 1.2 eye!

Such a classic design! I don't think I'd see something like that at school ...

Hey!

Don't you think you are being rude?

Uwaaaaa! I am so sorry!

Anyway, thanks for moving.

What is she trying to take a picture of here?

Do you have a business with me?

Ah... I Yeah!

If you don't mind ...

Could I touch that once?

I am sorry... I don't remember faces well ...

Your name is Yun Ji-Ah, right? We are in the same class. Don't you recognize me?

Very well. Remember me and my name is Kang Whar!

Don't we have a math homework due tomorrow?

Huh? Yeah... I think so. Why?

Okay!

Yes, I'd love to do that for you!

Done deal.

What were left of my one-year relationship with Whar were...

86 rolls of film.

Four math homeworks with perfect marks.

And running away from home with Whar once.

And a plane ticket to America by end of that year from my dad.
